

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign School of Social Work
FACULTY POSITION (search extended)

The School of Social Work invites applications for a faculty position, at the rank of Associate or Full Professor, with a starting date of August 16, 2016. We seek faculty candidates with established lines of research commensurate with these ranks. The School has a strong focus on intervention research with vulnerable populations. The School is rapidly expanding its research on vulnerable children and families, including developing a center of excellence in child behavioral health. This position is aligned with the Strategic Excellence Hiring Program at Illinois, focusing on Human Health and Wellness, and three other areas.

The successful candidate will have general expertise in the field of social work, the ability to maintain an active funded research agenda, and a commitment to excellence in teaching. Candidates must have an established record of funded research, scholarship and teaching, and must meet the University's requirements for the rank. A Ph.D. in social work or related field is required; preference will be given to those who also have an MSW. Research and service experience in such areas as systems or care, wraparound, or CANS would be especially valuable.

The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign School of Social Work is a freestanding unit renowned for its achievements in research and teaching. The student body has grown by 50% in the last 5 years. The School is committed to developing and disseminating knowledge for practice, with special emphasis on identifying the needs of vulnerable groups, developing responsive social welfare programs, and promoting social and economic justice. The School is the home of the Children and Family Research Center, which operates in collaboration with the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services. The University is committed to hiring and promoting persons of color, women and other designated class members. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience.
